Lindsay's Greatest Shoe Store

-- NO WAITING OUT --

On account of falling prices of our Mr. Hockin compelling him to leave Lindsay for a milder winter climate, this big shoe business has to be wound up. The immense stock of Boots and Shoes, Rubbers, Larrigans, Trunks and Travelling Goods is now being sold out greatly reduced prices.

Every article in the house has been marked down for Quick Sale. This week we are offering SPECIAL BARGAINS IN MEN'S LONG BOOTS, of which we have a large stock. Prices have been reduced to $1.50 per pair up to $3.50 for best Kip Long Boots.

As the sale may close any day, from the business changing hands, our friends will do well to buy at once—chances like this do not come this way often.

HEAD AND SHOULDERS ABOVE ALL COMPETITORS—

Another Immense Purchase and Sale of MEN'S SUITS AND OVERCOATS

And this time it is the superb hand-tailored high-class stock of an Eastern Wholesale Clothing House who sold us their remaining Fall and Winter Stock at "Absolutely Half What It Was Worth," consisting of several Hundred Suits and Overcoats and we closed the deal with the utmost alacrity.

Now, men of Lindsay and surrounding country, here is your chance of a lifetime. This news brings you a message you cannot afford to disregard for this Clothing House are such good clothes makers that neither they nor their product need any eulogy here. They are extensive advertisers in the newspapers and magazines, forcibly presenting the good qualities of their clothing. They make the finest goods, which are comparable only with the most expensive custom-made.

If you could only realize as we do the beauty and exceptional quality of these really elegant Suits and Overcoats and the great saving made possible to you by this sale, you would be here bright and early SATURDAY MORNING, when the sale begins at 9 o'clock.

Stocking up For the Christmas Season

Not the kind of stocking the children want for Santa Claus, but the kind the housekeeper wants when preparing the Holiday Good Things.

We have bought liberally and well, and can confidently recommend our goods as being the best procurable, while our prices are moderate.

Try us with a small order as a starter—we've no fear but that a larger one will speedily follow the first.

CASTLE

Indulge in golf with Carrye;
Sweet Dairie quite attracted me;
With Kathryn off I tarry,
But when I found a girl who spelled
Her name in fashion plain,
She firm my errant fancy held--
I married Mary Jane.

LADIES' COATS $2.50.

There's just about as odd a date to clear before the New Year as it is necessary to make a clean slate just now for a clearance. You will find among the best black and colored coats ranging in price from $4.00 to $10.00, and in sizes 12, 14, 16 and 38 last measure. If you're interested in coats these are some of them will be sold for Two Dollars and a Half.

Dundas & Havelles Limited

FRENCH FANNELS 39c.

All-wool printed French Fannels in spots, stripes and new fancy printings, cream, navy, cardinal, reds, black and myrtle grounds, quality of the finest and the designs are all the latest, this lot contains all our 50c and 65c lines. Very useful materials for dressing gowns and gowns and warm blouses. Thirty-nine cents per yard.

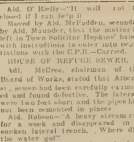

A Complete List For Christmas Shoppers

With reference to advertising, the present time is curious. All the stores have more or less to say about goods and prices, and shoppers are supposed to read every line and believe every word. Our notion is that people look back of the printed statement and consider a store's reputation for reliability and fair dealing. For that reason we print just enough by way of suggestion to start you thinking and make you welcome to the freest inspection of the goods themselves.

Ald. Cassidy referred to the immense quantities of water draining from the old Roman Catholic cemetery; times of flood the mounds in the House of Refuge sewer was covered two or three feet deep.

Q. How do you do we know that Alther's sewer is faulty?

A. Mr. McCrea—"Engineer Way knows better than I do."

Ald. Cassidy said he would like to know what the Engineer Chairman would think of the situation. His plan provided for the six and nine inch pipes put in, but it seemed reasonable to him that the Engineer should complete the draining of 500 or 600 acres.

Q. As well he would have figured larger pipes.

—W. W. W.

Ald. O'Rielly— "The waterworks pipe is laid in the same trench. There happens to be a leak it may account for the flow of water and the use of two tons of coal per day."

aid McGee—“I am not a contractor. I am a citizen. I am giving the contractor or his surety the right of appeal. Can we hold the balance of the money?”

Ballistic Hopkins—“Certainly. If the sewer is wrong it is not a question of a couple of hundred dollars; a large sum will be involved.”

Ald McGee read a copy of a letter sent by him to the County Court and setting forth the apparent facts in connection with the sewer. No reply had been received.

Mayor Ray—“It was fyled I think.”

Ald McGee—“Yes, I read it in the paper.”

Solicitor Hopkins—"If they took that way of shelving it I would not demand an immediate answer—you and I'd say Council were seriously thinking of cutting the sewer off from the town system."

County Secretary McNeillie will receive an innocent looking, but threatening missive soon.

Ald. O'Reilly referred to the need of more snow plows to enable contractors to put on two outfits and thus do the work more quickly. After some discussion, in which the need for at least two new plows was acknowledged, Chairman Moulder, of the Town Property committee, was authorized to get prices.

Chairman Hobson, of the Police and Lighting committee, presented an account for $482.50 from the L. H. B. Co., and another for $15 from B. & M. Co.

Ms. L. McGregor's application for a billiard license was read by Ald. O'Reilly, to whose committee it was referred at last meeting, whereupon Mayor Ray remarked, "I'm not po-

The tripman learned from the captain of the boat that this was the last trip made by the boat. As a consequence on the return trip the boat's crew had a lot of extra work to do in the way of getting the boat ready for the winter. This caused the long delay.

As soon as the boat arrived at the dock, the tripman called Dr. Joseph. The doctor examined Mr. Lagersted and had him removed to the Cottage hospital at once. This was done in a very short time and maintained by the ladies of Pemucke. They have everything in the hospital which will add to the comfort of the patients, and their system of nursing is perfect. Since Mr. Fitzgerald returned to his home he has steadily improved, and it is now hoped that there will be nothing to prevent an early recovery. There are hopes of Mr. Fitzgerald regaining the use of his arm, but it is feared the arm will never recover.

They are anxious of carrying out instructions, but they find themselves handicapped from the fact that there is no officer of the Children's Society in the majority of the population, whom they might call in when charges would be laid by them. And in too many cases they are met by indifference when it is sought to bring their notice. I would therefore suggest to you that you consult your Advisory Board, and that you call on the Board as the representative of the Children's Society located at the following places, that is to say: Oremore, Hoboken, Fenwick, New York, and New York, and Woodville, Kentucky. The presence of such an officer would have a salutary effect in making the attendance better, and almost prevent the children from being committed by irresponsible children. We Heartily Wish all Our Friends and Customers

A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

At this glad season of the year we wish to thank the people in and about Lindsay for the cash you have left with us during the year 1905.

We've enjoyed a splendid trade, and have constantly endeavored to give extra value for every dollar passed over our counters.

We have won the confidence of the public, and as long as we have your appreciation there will be no let up to the work of better satisfying all.

Again wishing you the compliments, I am

The Scourge of this Country and Climate is Tuberculosis or CONSUMPTION

519 Bickhart St., London, July 19, 1906.

Dr. Bloom C.

I am sending you my photo and testimonial herewith for your great remedy PSYCHINE. You, your remedies did wonders for me. I was about to give up at wedding and dancing. The doctors had given me up as an incurable consumptive. My lungs and every organ of the body were terribly diseased and wasted. Friends and neighbors thought I had given up. But PSYCHINE saved me. I have been well for 16 months, and PSYCHINE is a permanent cure.

WILL LITTLE GARDNER.

This is but one of the thousands of letters on file at this office testifying to the unparalleled excellence of PSYCHINE in eradicating and preventing diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Chest and Stomach.

For sale at all reliable druggists at $1.00 per bottle. For further advice, information, etc., write or call Dr. Bloom, 519 Bickhart Street, Toronto, Canada.

THE TAMING OF THE YELLO HORSE.

From a Tale by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Now Running in Chicago Heraldizing-Thematics Witnessed by Monks of Waverley.

Retook deep in the high grass under the shadow of a magnificent forest of horse as a scouler on a midday night. The horse was a tall, elegant, with mane and tail of a more tawny tint. He was dark, with a beard and a mane, which looked more as though he were a lion than a horse. He was looking at me with a steady, unflinching gaze, and his eyes were as bright as stars. He was looking at me with a steady, unflinching gaze, and his eyes were as bright as stars. He was looking at me with a steady, unflinching gaze, and his eyes were as bright as stars.

BACKWARD WENT THE HORSE.

The young squire had climbed on to the back of the horse, and was now sitting there, looking down at him with a steady, unflinching gaze. The horse was looking at me with a steady, unflinching gaze, and his eyes were as bright as stars. He was looking at me with a steady, unflinching gaze, and his eyes were as bright as stars. He was looking at me with a steady, unflinching gaze, and his eyes were as bright as stars.
